The Good News: God's Rescue Mission

God saw our helplessness and did not abandon us. He sent Jesus Christ to die the death reserved for us.

- Though we rebelled, He loved.
- Though we resisted, He pursued.
- Though we deserved death, He offered life.

"But God demonstrates His love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

The cross of Christ is the bridge back home.
Not by your strength.
Not by your goodness.
By grace alone.

Today, His voice whispers:
Come home. I made you. I love you. I want you.

How Can You Be Saved?

You cannot save yourself.
No religion, no effort, no good deeds are enough. You must humbly recognize your need and receive the gift God offers freely.

"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23)

"The soul who sins shall die." (Ezekiel 18:20)

Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your heart.

A Prayer from the Heart

If you believe God is speaking to you, pray sincerely:

"My Father in Heaven, today I acknowledge my sins before You. I believe that Your Son Jesus Christ died for my sins. I turn from all my old ways and accept Jesus as my Lord and personal Savior. Help me to live a life pleasing to You all the days of my life here on earth. Amen."

What Happens Now?

If you prayed sincerely, rejoice!

- Your sins are forgiven.
- You are now a child of God.
- You have crossed from death to life.

Now, grow in Him.
Find a Christ-centered fellowship.
Learn His Word.
Walk daily with the One who rescued you.

You were made for Him, and today, your journey home begins.

You Matter to God

No matter where you have been, what you have done, or how far you feel
You are deeply loved.
You are seen.
You are not forgotten.

Today, you have a new beginning sealed by the blood of Jesus Christ.

ARE YOU READY TO MEET YOUR MAKER

Are You Ready to Meet Your Maker?

As you read these words, take a moment.
Lay aside assumptions, traditions, fears, or doubts.
Let your heart reflect honestly and neutrally.
Because what you do with this truth will echo into eternity.

May God help you find the light you were made for.

The Battle for Your Soul

In today's world, we are taught:

- You are the master of your fate.
- Religion is outdated.
- Life ends at death and nothing more.

But these ideas are not new.
They are ancient lies whispered from the beginning of time. The devil's first strategy was simple: "You will not surely die..." (Genesis 3:4)

His goal?
To cause humanity to rebel against their Creator and lose the pure love God designed for us.
Instead of freedom, rebellion brings slavery and ultimately, judgment. (Matthew 25:41)

Even now, Satan disguises himself as an "angel of light," planting false teachers, false hopes, and false religions to confuse seeking hearts. (2 Corinthians 11:14; 1 Timothy 4:1–2)

Evidence All Around Us

We easily believe that houses have architects, and paintings have painters.
Yet when it comes to the universe, which is infinitely more complex, we deny a Maker?

God's Word says:
"The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's crib; but Israel does not know, My people do not consider." (Isaiah 1:23)

We are stewards, not owners of our lives.
Just like a tenant must one day account to a landlord, We will each give an account to the One who gave us life. (Romans 2:5–11)

There will be a day of judgment, a day of reward for some, and heartbreak for others.

A day with no second chances.
(Hebrews 9:27)

The Inescapable Reality

Death is certain.
But the timing is unknown.
Whether rich or poor, strong or weak, the clock is ticking for every soul.
Ignoring this truth won't erase it.

The question is not "Will you face judgment?"
The question is, "Will you be ready when you do?"

And no human strength, wisdom, or morality can prepare us. You don't impress the Creator by trying to save yourself.
You must be rescued.

The Hidden Conflict Inside You

You might feel a tension deep inside already. Psychologists call it "cognitive dissonance," the mental stress from holding contradictory beliefs.

God calls it your spirit crying out for its true home. (Galatians 5:17)

No matter how successful, independent, or free you seem there is a conflict within because you were made for more.
Your soul knows it was created for a relationship with God.

Trying to live for yourself is serving the enemy of your soul. (Romans 8:8)

Who Are You Serving?

We all serve someone, even if it's ourselves. But when we crown ourselves, we unknowingly serve Satan's agenda of rebellion.

The Apostle Paul cried out:
"What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death?" (Romans 7:24)

Maybe you've felt the same.
There is only one way out.
